IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory
SAHRI JANE MOORE (KERR)
21.09.82 - 28.11.98

Sitting here thinking about you
I hear you call my name
As I turn to see who's calling me
I see no one, only hear your voice
I glance across the room
To see if anyone else hears it too
But no one seems to notice
We miss you so much, we keep telling you
But you don't seem to hear us
Still you're calling out, only louder
As the tears roll down my face
I glance around the room, and see you amongst your family
The look upon your face says, you're peaceful now
I REALISED IT WAS TIME TO LET YOU GO
Dad, Mum, Michael, Violet, Missy, nieces and nephews

IN MEMORIAM

David Victor CAIRNS

NEWS

FANTASTIC EFFORT . . . Noel Paterson not only performed at the Angel Flight Staircase to the Stars, but also topped the billing in the highest total raised by an entrant, a stellar $1300, which saw him win a trophy for the effort.

Noel bests fundraising effort in star showcase

By SIMON CRASE
Tweedie, performed very well on the night.
The debutantes, brides and trendsetters hit the Rydges Southbank catwalk in Townsville on Saturday, December 6 and Sunday, December 7, and Mrs Barr said the expectation was a very high total would be reached due to the entrants across the categories.
"Charters Towers has a very good representation in these categories, and I've got no doubt they'll do the town proud," Mrs Barr said.
"I think the fundraising could be in excess of $50,000."
All the money raised through Angel Flight events goes to charity and the service exists for people and families who don't have the finances to meet the demand of air travel costs to receive medical treatment.
Voluntary pilots and doctors carry out many important missions during the year and Angel Flight has been instrumental in saving many lives across Australia.

CHARTERS Towers participants in the 2009 Angel Flight are making their mark on the fundraiser.
Angel Flight's earth angel Gwen Barr said the recent Staircase to the Stars talent quest produced an outstanding result, both in performances and fundraising.
"It was a very successful event which ran smoothly, and the Towers entrants did a wonderful job," Mrs Barr said.

While the final tally is not yet known, Mrs Barr believes almost $18,000 was raised by entrants.
"This was an outstanding amount and I was very pleased with the outcome of the event."
The O'Donoghue siblings, Katelyn, Kasey and Liam, were finalists in the talent quest, which is a testament to their abilities, Mrs Barr said.

Noel Paterson won the Staircase to the Stars fundraising award, his effort bringing in over $1300, and another Towers competitor, Shawnee
